MACHINE FRIGHT.

Unless the intelligent delegates of the Fourth District Convention find them they will wake up this morning with the conviction to discover that the Fifth District, not strongly Republican, will debate the candidate of the Republican County and Legislative ticket.

From the standpoint of the Fifth there is no harm in this, because one of the ambitions of many political workers is to get all they can. It is ruinous to satisfactory political results, however, in the Fourth District. Members of the County and District Conventions should not take snap judgment on the resolution passed in the Fourth District Committee meeting of last evening which requires a candidate for office to pledge himself to the party and also demands an oath from the candidate that he is not allied with any other political organization than the Republican party.

The charge is immediately made that these resolutions are pointed at candidates like Bingham, Dillingham and Henshaw, the former being agent and Mr. Henshaw a member of the Civic Federation.

This charge may be true, but if the Civic Federation is a political organization within the scope of the resolution introduced, it will be the first time the sponsors of that body have acknowledged the same. If the Civic Federation is not a political organization, it would therefore appear that the remedy men of the Federation have come far afield in the search of trouble.

On the other hand, there has been a declared political organization in the field with a platform, favored by Robert Bingham, A. B. Henshaw, can be done through the introduction of such a factor by resolution before the convention comes in session. It would, in fact, be no great credit to the convention to be lumbered up with such a candidate.

The pledge demanded of the candidate is not new to the present period. It is memory serves correctly, it was put through at the last local convention without opposition. It is a guarantee which has proved of value on former occasions and should at least be contemplated with a mild as free from prejudice as the delegate to a convention can muster. Dillingham gave his pledge to stand by the party before he went away. This should be sufficient to put him outside the operation of the remedy.

OPPOSITION TO DILLINGHAM.

Honolulu, Sept. 12-1906.
Ed. E. Betteith,
sir,

Why so much fuss about W. Dillingham in the R. A. party not broke up enough without it putting such a man has him on the ticket. Six years ago the Very same men who are backing him, backed the Hon. C. Brown for employing two or three days now they are coming forward for Dillingham who employ the same by the Henshaw, Mr. Ed. I will do all in my power to keep Mr. Dillingham at home I think he and all who are backing him have a great check to ask Citizens to Vote for him. Let him get his Japs to Vote for him—

I am a

RAP VOTER

If this is the theory on which the nomination of Walter Dillingham for County Supervisor is considered in expedient, it is mighty far-fetched, to say the least.

It is true that a rumour was made over the three Japanese Cecil Brown employed, but that does not establish the justice of it. The probability is that the writer of the above letter was one of Cecil Brown's supporters and voted for him. The Bulletin certainly supported him up to the time of his independent candidacy and is still of the opinion that his three Japanese laborers did not ruin his position as a first-class citizen and a most able legislator.

There are mighty few persons in this Territory engaged in large enterprises who do not employ Japanese by the hundreds. Senator Bishop, Senator Dowsett, Senator Wilcox and ex-Senator Baldwin are associated with business affairs that employ Japanese by the thousands. We have yet to learn that this has vitally injured their high place in the esteem of the people, or that a citizen who employs Japanese servants should in consequence be insulted by the request to vote for them.

Walter Dillingham is one of the best men whose names have gone on the list of candidates this year. He has a mighty strong following among the young men of the whole County. He is honest. It is safe to say that he employs more citizen labor than fifty per cent of the men who criticize him.

If that is all there is against Dillingham—if the record of candidates is to be so finely combed—then it is about time for the whole list to be shaken up to learn what sort of gentleman is proposed as a substitute—and what proportion of the persons in their employ, if any, are Japanese.

McINERNEY NOT COURTING OFFICE

In regard to the report that E. A. McInerney was spoken of as a possible candidate for the Senate, Mr. McInerney this morning stated that he knew nothing about the matter beyond the report to which his attention had been called.

"I have not been asked, consulted or spoken to in reference to my being a candidate for the Senate," said he. "The first I knew about it was when one of my friends showed me the item in one of the local papers." Asked as to whether he would consent to be a candidate, Mr. McInerney said that he had not yet been given the opportunity to decline or accept, but that he was rather of the opinion that, if he were offered the nomination, he would decline it. "I have no desire to be a member of the Senate," he said.

CIVIC FED. PUTS HIS FOOT IN IT

Withington Asks Vida A Question And Gets The Answer

The following correspondence has passed between D. L. Withington of the Civic Federation and Assistant Sheriff H. C. Vida:

Honolulu, Sept. 11.

Mr. Henry C. Vida.

I saw in the Star a letter from you in which you state that in the last County election you were offered by the Civic Federation the nomination of Deputy Sheriff.

I have inquired from a number of gentlemen connected with that campaign, and who are either members or acted in harmony with the Civic Federation, and have not been able to find anyone who had any communication with you on the matter. Personally I was unaware that any such had been had, and have been twice to your office to ascertain the names of such persons. Would you kindly inform me who it was representing or purporting to represent the Civic Federation, who tendered you such a nomination, or who requested you to run for the office?

Very truly yours,

D. L. WITHINGTON.

Honolulu, T. H., Sept. 12th, 1906.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your communication of September 11th, I would state that I desire to know whether or no the information you seek is in behalf of the Civic Federation.

If such is so, I would kindly refer you to the published accounts of the affair as they appear in the Evening Bulletin of June 16th, 1905, 3:30 edition; but if it is for yourself personally, I would be pleased to give the names and facts at a personal interview at any time convenient to you.

Very truly yours,

HENRY C. VIDA.

In the 1905 campaign High Sheriff Henry, with others, called at Vida's house at 11 o'clock at night and urged him to run as Deputy Sheriff with W. T. Rawlins for County Sheriff, on a ticket to defeat Brown. Vida refused.

SUDDEN ILLNESS ALSO IN ASYLUM

Analyst Duncan has received for analysis a number of samples of the milk which is suspected to have caused the cases of sudden illness, which occurred at St. Andrew's Priory and in certain boarding-houses.

Dr. Peterson of the Insane Asylum this morning reported to the Board of Health that several of his patients had been taken ill in a similar manner, probably also because of bad milk. Duncan has not as yet completed his analysis.

ENCOUNTERED NO NORTHERLY CURRENT

Unusual Experience Of Captain Lynam Of The Thomas

Captain Lynam of the transport Thomas, which arrived from San Francisco this morning, states that, contrary to his usual experience, he encountered no northerly current near the islands. Capt. Lynam says that it is his invariable custom to head for Molokai, as there is usually a current setting to the north of more or less force, and he wishes to be on the safe side and avoid any such accidents as have happened to the Manehuna and the Sheridan. This time, however, the current was not encountered and it was necessary to haul in this morning in order to make this port.

The Thomas brings a lot of gear for trying to haul the Sheridan off the rocks, but will take no part in the operations herself. Capt. Lynam states that while, of course, he is not familiar with the situation here any more than from what he has heard, he does not believe that it will be possible to try to haul the Sheridan off in less than three weeks at the soonest. He says it is no use trying to haul her off with a lot of big rocks sticking through her bottom, unless they wish to tear her bottom out. It is going to take a good while to get things in readiness for the real work.

Although notice was posted that the Thomas would leave for Guam at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, Capt. Lynam says that it is not probable that she can get away in less than two days. He says it took eighteen or twenty hours to load the wrecking gear in San Francisco, working two batches and with plenty of men available. Here only one batch can be worked and the Thomas will have to depend on her own men to do the work.

"Sometimes I think I have more troubles than any other man on earth," "Nonsense! Look at Thompson. He's got a wife, an automobile, and a sure system for beating the races," Judge.

as if this ticket was in the field the of the business men's meeting and was what George W. Smith referred to when he said he had information which he could not disclose to the meeting. Smith, it will be remembered asked that the meeting take action. He was satisfied that the case that night would not act audacious developments proved his prediction true.

Whether this be true or not, it seems certain that the names of the mentioned will go before the convention as substitutes if necessary for those already heard from.

From the standpoint of the citizens anxious to have their candidates right before the convention, the new men are all right but have not come into the race according to Hoyle.

G. H. Angus states that he has been talked to on the proposition, but is not ready at this time to make a definite statement.

A. T. Brock stated at noon that there was no truth whatever in the story of his candidacy before the coming convention.

Edwin H. Paris said that until today he never heard of the matter, and is in the dark as to where it originated unless it was because he was seen talking to Sam Johnson on the street yesterday.

In reply to a direct question as to whether he would accept a nomination, Mr. Paris replied in the negative. "You can say for me," he said, "that I have troubles enough of my own, without butting into politics. I would not consider such a thing. But I would like to know how the story got started. I never heard of it before today."
